With a Message For All

It is always a pleasure to receive another copy of the Royal Blue. This book preserves, largely in pictures, the varied life of the year, and as the years pass it will mean more and more to those who took part in the activities of the school.

The times demand a stalwart generation. You youth pictured here, if resolute, sympathetic, brave and just, can plot a straight course out of the circles of the present—can achieve an America great beyond our present hopes. Our country's greatest need is capable, honest, fair-minded people to control its events. It is my belief that the generation now in our schools gives more promise of meeting this need than any group I have known. I expect it to do the trick.

W. A. LACEY

It is natural for every student to feel that his high school is superior to most other schools in the land, and such a feeling of loyalty is one of the most precious ingredients in the thing we call school spirit. But sometimes we are too much inclined to "rest on our laurels," though those laurels may have been earned long before many of us were in Wa-Hi. Our school has many wonderful traditions of accomplishment; but because it has been an outstanding school in the past is no guarantee that it will continue to be, unless each student and faculty member makes a continual effort.

What we want is that Wa-Hi shall be a distinguished school—distinguished not merely for "pep," but for the quality of its endeavors: the quality of its scholarship, its athletics, its R. O. T. C., its plays, its music, its activities in whatever form, its student citizenship. Whatever we do as a school, may we do it well. To this I pledge my support.

DEAN LOBAUGH

Keeps the Wheels Going 'Round

The 1300 students of Wa-Hi chose Jack Aylward to guide them throughout the school year of 1938 and 1939. The other students voted to student-body posts were: Willard Transeth, vice president; Joan Martin, secretary; Eugene Cochran, treasurer for the first semester; Kenneth Knowles, treasurer for the second semester; and Bob Weathers, yell-leader.

The Cabinet, selected by the president and ratified by the Legislative Assembly, has willingly worked with the president in directing the student affairs. Appointed to the offices of the Student Cabinet were: Commissioner of Assemblies, Sarah Ellen Loney; Commissioner of Halls, Dave Barclay; Commissioner of Organization, Betty Robison; Commissioner of Buildings and Grounds, Harold Piper; Commissioner of Inter-School Relations, Clayton Matthews; Commissioner of Finance, Blaine Burton; Commissioner of Stage, Alvin Huber. The Cabinet has supervised activities of the school at a level fully as high as that of past years.

Under the guiding hand of Chief Justice Jacob Gradwohl, the Student Court cleared-up congested hall conditions at Wa-Hi this year. Appointed to the offices of Justices were: Sol Frank of the Senior class; Elmer Levin and Patty Walters, as the Junior members; Robert Jacky and Doris McCauley, for the Sophomores, and Eugene Struthers, Freshman. The improvement of conditions at Wa-Hi, through activity of the Student Court, has been notable this year.

One of the major innovations is the Fire Department. Stanley Kelso, elected fire chief, by the Legislative Assembly, has charge of the fire drills and has appointed a staff to help him. Members of the fire staff are: Jimmie Wamble, Jim Boldman, Pearl Jackson, Bob Hooper, Irene McNamara, and Eleanor Scheece.

Setting the Pace is The Girls' Federation

ADVISER.....	MISS McCORMICK
PRESIDENT.....	LOIS PREAS
VICE PRESIDENT.....	ALICE GARRETT
SECRETARY.....	MARGIE DACRES
TREASURER.....	RUTH WEBB

Federation activities for the year 1938-1939 started with a party for the incoming freshman girls. Each girl was introduced to the customs and traditions of Wa-Hi by a senior girl. Halloween provided the setting for a very successful masquerade party. Prizes were given for the best costumes, a very dignified paper dress, and an impressive hill-billy costume.

The monthly assemblies provided both entertainment and education. Outstanding talks were given by women prominent in the community. A one-act play entitled "Proposing to Jane" and an amateur hour was very entertaining. A Christmas assembly was given, the admission for which was clothing, food, or toys which were distributed to the needy.

With the help of Mrs. Sauers and her art class, Margie Dacres and her assistants succeeded in converting an old room into a lounge room for the girls. Modern furniture and murals add to the effectiveness.

The most important activity of the year was the Tri-State Conference which was held here in April. The theme of the Conference was "The Fulfillment of a Dream." Approximately 200 girls attended from a radius of 150 to 200 miles. The committee for the conference was headed by Lois Hamm, Barbara White, and Shirley Jo Mays. Cooperating with other club groups, this committee succeeded in conducting programs and meetings in such a fashion that it was generally enjoyed.

The Federation has as its ideals and goal the betterment of school spirit and better relationship among the girls. The Girls' Cabinet, headed by Helen Sporleder the first semester, and Helen Marshall the second semester, has done much to promote this. The cooperation of every girl in school has helped to make this year another success in Federation history.

Also Influential is The Boys' Federation

ADVISER .....	PAUL ANDERSON
PRESIDENT .....	MILAN NESLIN
VICE PRESIDENT .....	CLAYTON MATTHEWS
SECRETARY .....	WAYNE AYLWARD
TREASURER .....	WAYNE BERRY

Since the establishment of the Federation last year, a great many things have been accomplished. In the fall and spring a party is given for the incoming freshman boys. This gives them an opportunity to get accustomed to the curricula of high school life.

The assemblies, held twice a month, feature speakers of varied fields, each a separate source of inspiration to the boys. Clubs also provide entertainment. A Christmas assembly was given through the cooperation of both Boys' and Girls' Federations to collect supplies for the needy.

Another interesting item is the sending of cards to the boys who are absent for any length of time. The boys assist in intramural sports and activities. Fifteen delegates from Wa-Hi attended the Older Boys' Conference in Spokane. On their return they reported on the highlights of the Conference in boys' assembly.

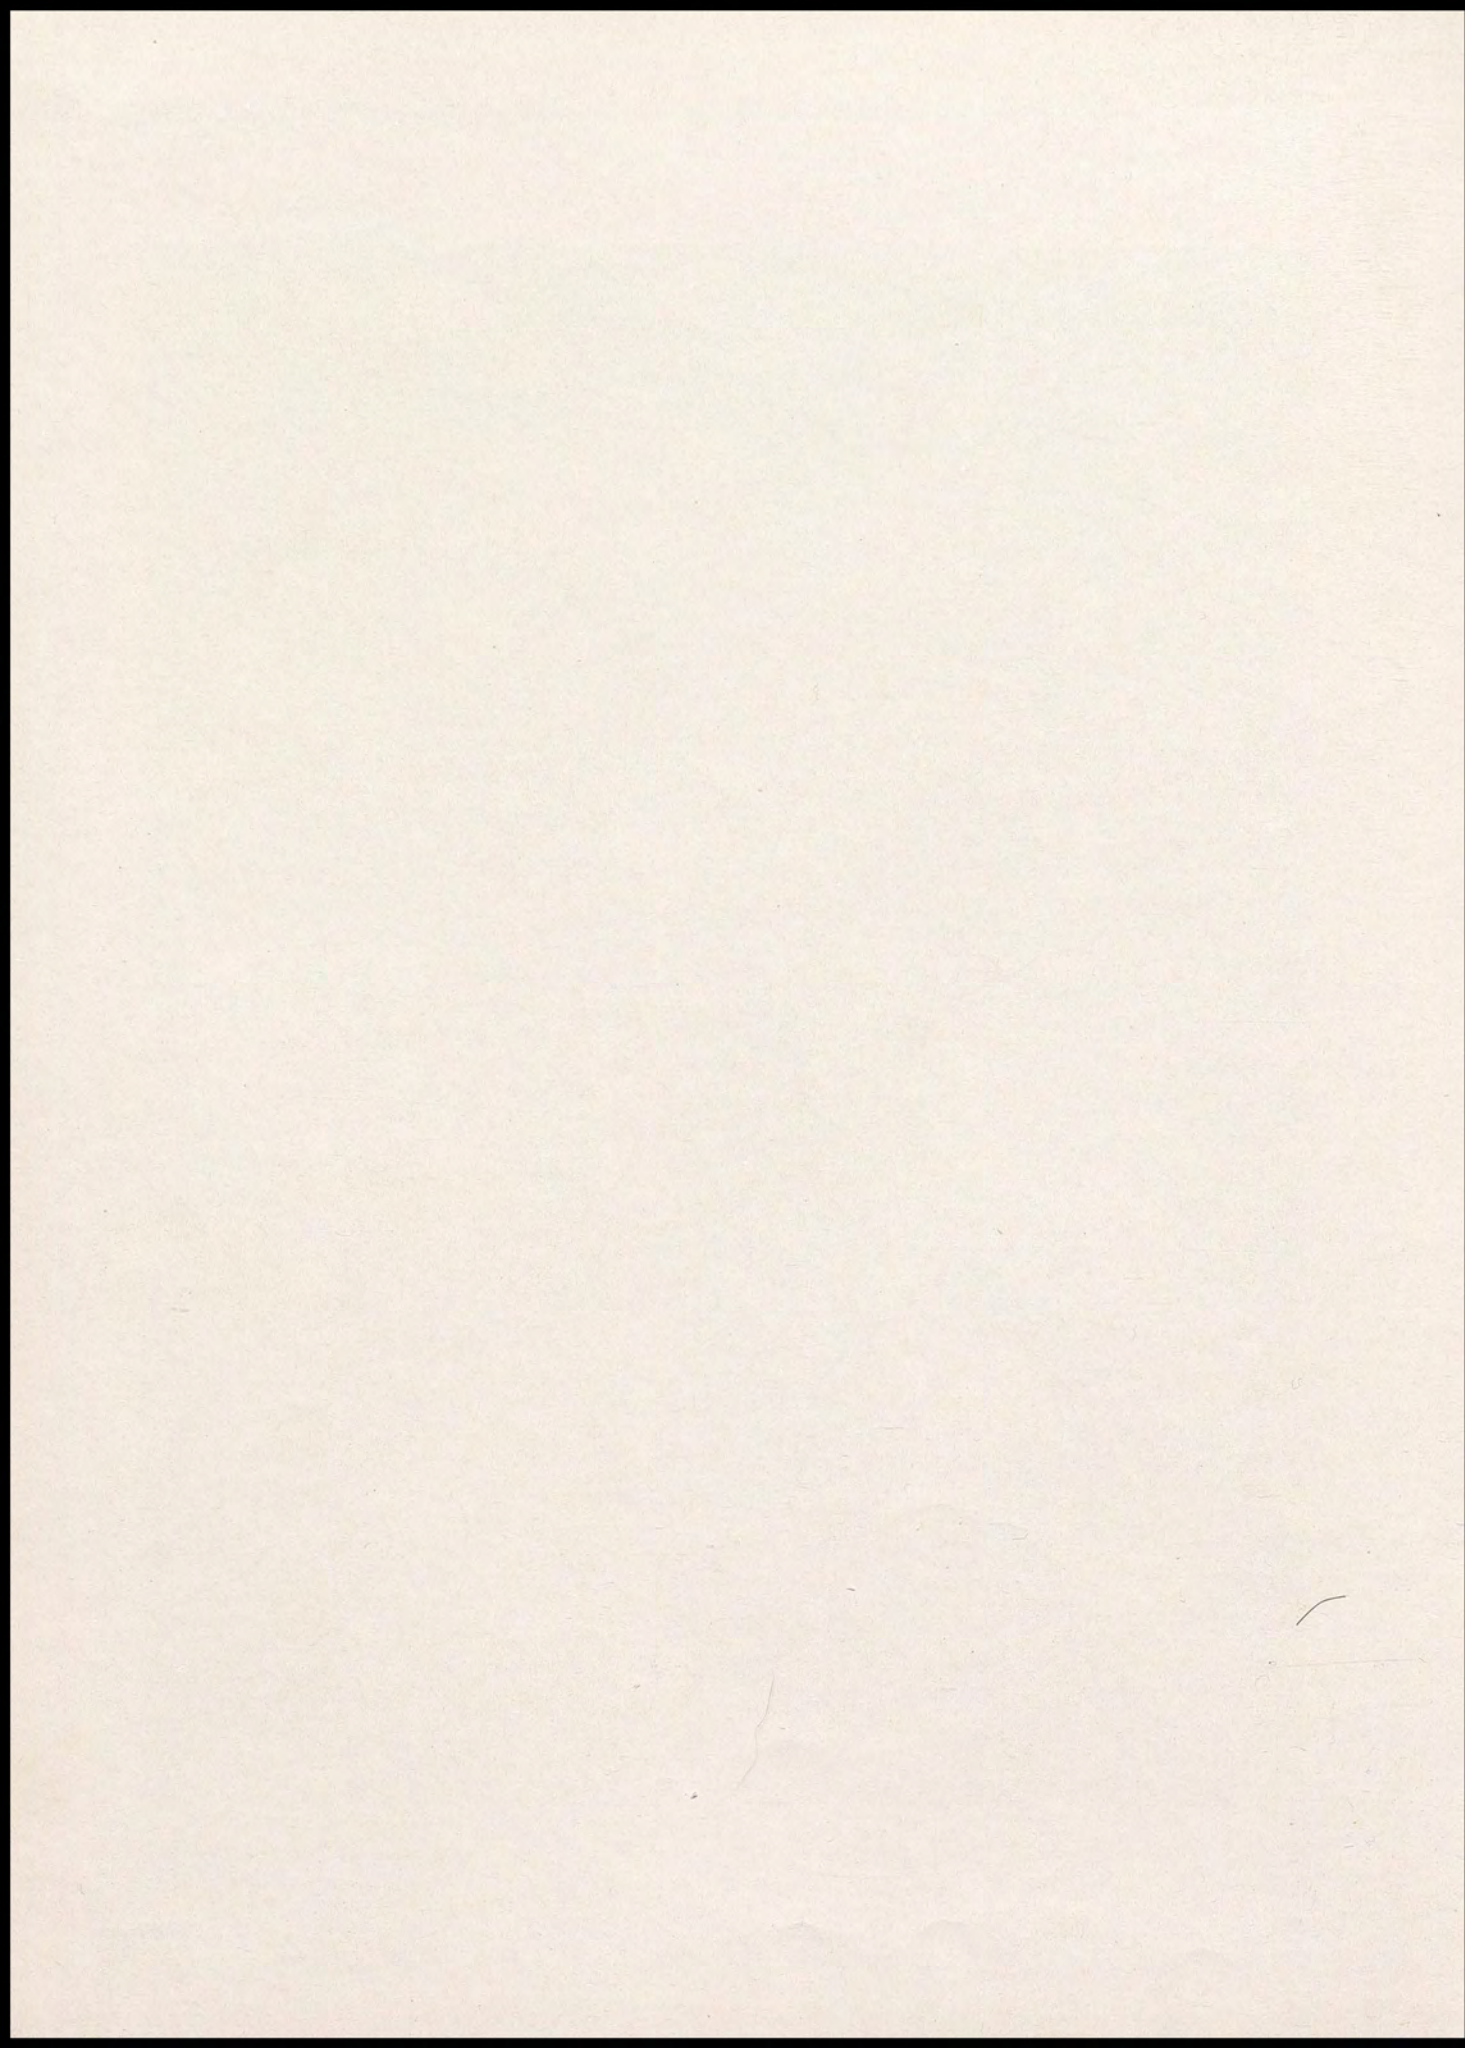

The Federation includes many committees. The entertainment committee has charge of the assemblies. The committee to greet new boys shows them their classes and introduces them to other boys. There is also a visiting committee to greet visitors to the school and show them the places of interest.

The Boys' Federation was organized for the purpose of getting the boys better acquainted with each other, and assisting them in every way possible. This year has been a great success as well as a great aid to the boys. The cooperation of all the boys in school with the Federation officers and adviser has helped to make it a success.

The class of 1939 is the largest to graduate from Wa-Hi and has naturally led in activities. Playing an active part even as Freshmen, the Seniors have maintained an ever-increasing part in athletics and social affairs.

In spite of active participation in widely varied activities, the class has kept up a high grade standard.

The following committees are at present functioning to complete arrangements for the last days of school.

The Juniors of Wa-Hi under Miss Falk's supervision have accomplished much this year, and show promise of becoming one of the most active senior classes Wa-Hi has ever known.

The typical students which were chosen in a school-wide election from the Junior Class were Betty Rauh, Alice Garrett, and Dick Eggers.

Many Juniors took part in the various phases of the annual Wa-Hilarities program, and the Junior Class's own contribution to it was a clever Mexican scene used as a finale for the show. The theme of Wa-Hilarities being the World's Fairs, the Mexican scene was used to depict the San Francisco World's Fair.

Yvonne Neumann, dressed as a Mexican flower girl sang "Cavelitos." Joan Martin played "Estrelita" on her violin, and Patty Copeland and Mary Margaret Mitchell executed a colorful Spanish dance. As a fitting close, the actors sang "San Francisco."

The Juniors have contributed regularly to the sports activities of the school for many seasons. Juniors particularly outstanding on the school teams this year were Don Keyes on the basketball team, and Henry Oswald, football letterman.

This year the former Freshmen have proved successful Sophomores and loyal supporters of Wa-Hi. The Sophomore class has also been fortunate in having many students who have made the honor roll and who have been prominent in school activities.

For the first time in many years the class has contributed several athletes to the varsity teams. Jack Melton, David Cox, Bud Miller, Jack Kenny, Warren Bischoff, Dick Clark, Paul Garland, Daryl Gilliam, and Dick Eggers have received this honor.

The class has also contributed a number of successful players to the interscholastic girl's team. Dorothy Chriscoe and Lois Mace will be in the group of the first girls to earn letters in Wa-Hi this year.

Many of the students in the class have participated in speech and dramatics. Two members of the class won places in the Golden Jubilee contest. Dorothy Chriscoe who spoke on "The Pioneers of Washington" had the honor of winning first place and also placed in the state meet. Harold Pratt not only placed 2nd in the Oratorical Contest but also had one of the important leads in the All-School Play.

The class contributed a bowery scene to Wa-Hilarity which consisted of 2 skaters, a dancer, and 12 singers. In the absence of Frank Boewer, sophomore president, Virginia Pratt, vice president, took the responsibility of chairman for Wa-Hilarities.

Many of the students in the class have proved capable leaders of school clubs.

Reginald Thompson and Helen Webb, both former presidents of the class, were chosen to be the typical students of the Sophomore class.

The class has had the capable guidance of Miss Draper throughout the year.

This year, Wa-Hi welcomed one of the largest freshman classes that has ever attempted to pry into its educational secrets. Combined with the two hundred and fifty new students that entered the first semester, the second semester's seventy-five froshers made a total of three hundred and twenty-five. The "wearers o' the green" occupy ten homerooms.

Miss Ivy Peterson, the class adviser, cooperating with Tom Copeland, second semester president, and his assistants, vice-president Maxine Hartley, and secretary-treasurer Charles Gallo, contributed a beautiful Hawaiian scene to the Wa-Hilarities. Also, during the first semester, president Paul Garland, and his cooperatives, vice-president Jack Melton, and secretary-treasurer Jack Freeman, sponsored a series of freshman parties after school in the cafeteria.

As usual, the responsibility of gathering the wood for a pep-rally bonfire fell upon the unlucky greenhorns. This duty was performed without any prompting from the disappointed sophomore class.

Eugene McMann was elected by his class as one of the ten typical students of Wa-Hi.

Jack Melton made the varsity football team. The freshman basketball team was also good this year. All freshmen take gym, and while the girls are learning the art of dancing, volleyball, basketball, tennis, tumbling, and speedball, the boys are occupied with softball, basketball, horseshoes, and badminton. Some of the more sport-loving ones take part in spring football, fencing, boxing, and wrestling.

The freshmen have assemblies separate from the upper classmen, because of the increase in the enrollment of Wa-Hi, and the insufficient number of seats in the auditorium.

Freshman boys cannot enter the R.O.T.C. military corps because of a school regulation. Many of the musical-minded have entered the band, which is permissible, provided they take gym during their freshman year.

Although they have a few short-comings, the present freshman class should make a fine class of sophomores—and eventually, seniors.

Highlighting School Activities

Returning student desire for a year book has enabled this year's staff to publish a book larger and more colorful than those of recent years. This year over half the students in Wa-Hi have purchased annuals. The present staff, determined to fulfill the demand for publication before the end of the school year, has been forced to put diminished emphasis on late spring activities. To counteract this loss, records of this years achievements will appear fully reported in the 1940 Royal Blue.

Under the leadership of Sarah Ellen Loney, Editor-in-chief, and Clayton Matthews, Associate Editor, in charge of photography, a large and active staff has developed. June Wamble, Business Manager, has had complete charge of sales and business. Glenna Driscoll displayed her stellar salesmanship in disposing of over three hundred books.

Recording the March of Events

By sponsoring a literary contest with a cash prize, the Wa-Hi Journal has made a definite step in encouraging students in creative writing. An interesting feature is the addition of the Journal office for members of the staff. Quite different is the new head schedule which gives a modern appearance to the paper.

The advertising staff has held up unusually well, and the Journal will finish the year with a favorable balance.

The grade requirement is raising the standard of writing, and it is hoped that it will raise the N.S.P.A. rating from a "first-class paper" to their goal of an "All American paper".

Under the leadership of Clifford Hamar, the Quill and Scroll chapter has been revived, giving the journalists more incentive to do outstanding writing.

In Peace-Time Preparation

The voluntary unit of Wa-Hi was officially recognized by the Federal War Department as a Reserve Officers' Training Corps in 1919. Captain P. W. Allison, assisted by Sergeant Mizony, is now in charge of the four companies of military boys and one company of sponsors. Mr. H. C. Tilley is in charge of the military band.

There are many chances to win special awards and advancement for the boy who follows the regulations of the corps. Jack Darch was chosen as the best first-year student, and two first lieutenants, three sergeants, and one private received awards for straight "A's" in theoretical work.

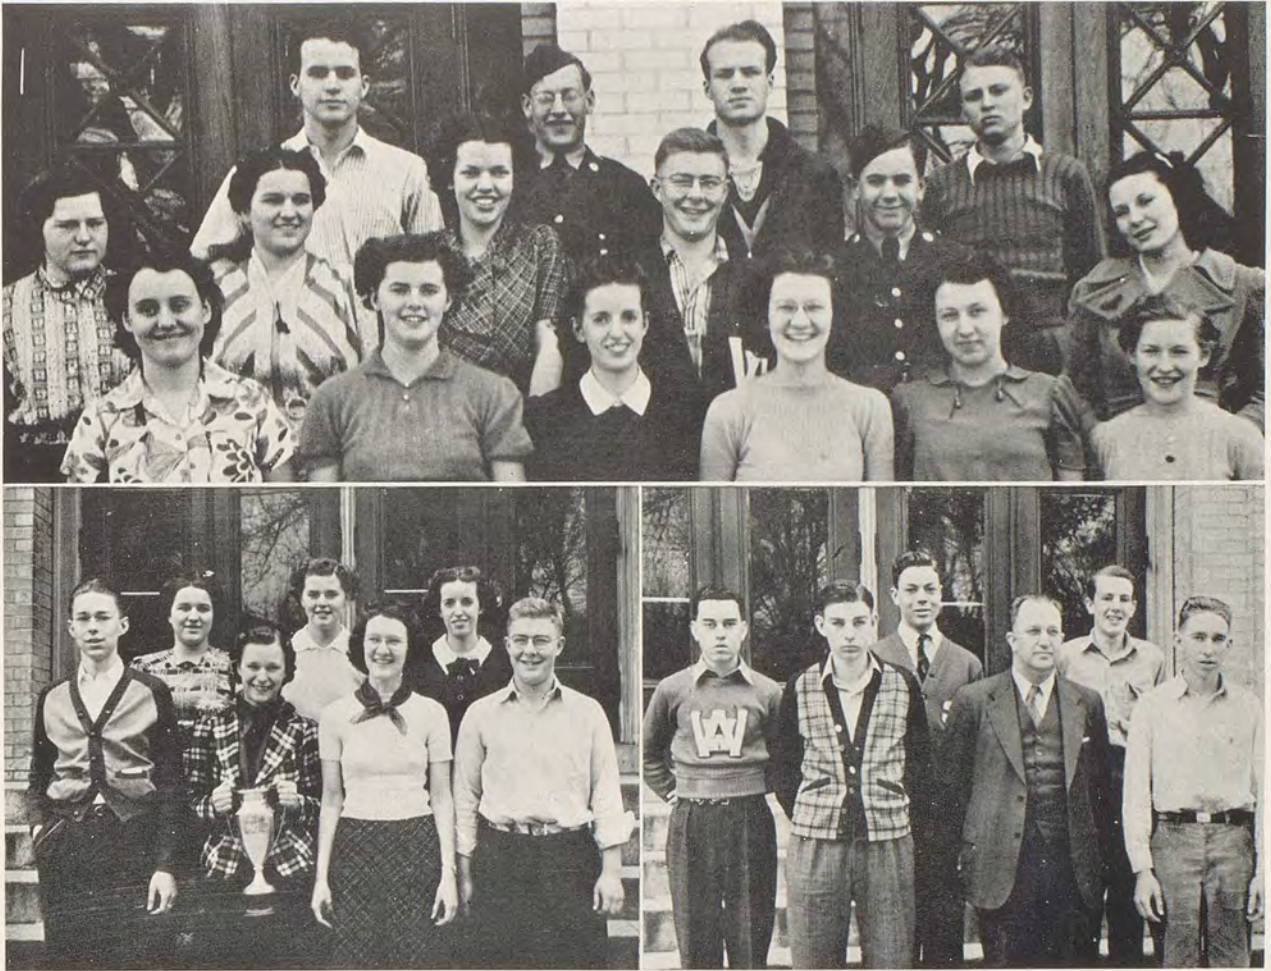

Every week a general inspection is held, when one person from each company, and one person from the band is chosen according to the neatness of their uniforms. Once a month theater tickets are given to the five best-dressed cadets that have won the most times during the month.

Harris Taylor is in charge of a rifle team of boys in the corps that shoot in the rifle range beneath the military offices in the Industrial Arts Building. Also, the supply room is in that building.

The sponsor's company is under charge of Captain Mary Jean Aylward. Sarah Ellen Loney and Virginia Crego are first lieutenants. Each week girls are chosen from the sponsors corps to inspect the troops.

The Federal inspection is held in the spring of every year. The battalion also sponsors a military tournament.

Speaking Well for the School

The newly organized speech squad having sponsored two radio programs, and various contests, and debates, has met regularly throughout the year.

Dorothy Gould, Clayton Matthews, Barbara Woodward, and Frank Boewer reached the finals in the Eh-Kah-Nam, traditional Wa-Hi speech contest. Dorothy Gould placed first and Clayton Matthews, who represented Wa-Hi at Whitman, second. Four girls who were chosen from a large mixed group to represent Wa-Hi at Seattle were Cora Jean Hilbert, who placed second in the state-wide poetry interpretation contest, Marion Aiton, who placed third, Dorothy Gould and Barbara Woodward.

The speakers are under the direction of James Stevens.

Judging From Experience

Representing Wa-Hi at various stock and potato judging events this year were two well-trained teams. Those selected to do potato judging were Elwood Shemwell Bruce Maxson and Richmond Blomgren. Blomgren with Jack Hogben and John Rehberg constituted the stock-judging team.

When Clubs Meet

Aviation Club

Gas airplane models have received the enthusiastic attention of the nineteen members of the Aviation Club. The boys, who are all interested in model building, were asked to cooperate in the National Air Week. Under the leadership of Sergeant Harold Mizony, they are laying a good foundation for future aeronautical work. Officers are:

President	STERLING LARUE
Vice President	JOHN WEIDERT
Secretary-Treasurer	JACK DAVIS

Camera Club

Learning to take, print, and develop pictures is the aim of the Camera Club. This year the members have improved the dark room, thereby getting practice in what they learn about developing and printing. Many candid snaps were contributed to the snapshot pages of the annual. Parties and hikes, which feature picture taking are the main activities of the club.

El Adrea

Prominent in girls' clubs of Wa-Hi, El Adrea has attained new heights this year. The girls strive to develop the character of members by freeing them from self-consciousness. Among its accomplishments were a successful semi-formal dance, an assembly, a skit for Wa-Hilarities, and a formal banquet for the senior members. Shirley Stone, president, was aided in these undertakings by Louis Preas, vice president; Sarah Ellen Loney, secretary; and Jane Nilsson, treasurer.

Equites

One of the oldest Wa-Hi clubs is Equites, the classical club for boys. The heavy stage curtain was purchased with proceeds from the production "Antigone" given by the club members. At the meetings, one-half of the programs are about everyday problems, and a varied program of classical subjects. The boys plan their own programs.

President	DAVID NEW
Vice President	DICK KENYON
Secretary	FRANCIS BATFANY
Treasurer	JERRY LARUE

F. F. A.

Altogether there are fifty Future Farmers of America in Wa-Hi's branch of the national organization. The boys gave showings of cattle, fruit, and vegetables at the Southeastern Washington Fair and at the Spokane Junior Livestock Show. Their projects include cooperative swine and potato projects, a grass nursery, and fertilizer plots. This year, the Union Pacific Scholarship was earned by John Rehberg.

Der Lorelei Verein

Members of this club are either studying German now, have studied it, or speak it at home. In the educational meetings of the club, programs are organized so the members can learn about Germany and German life. Besides these meetings, this club has social meetings which include parties, an annual spring picnic, and a semi-formal banquet at the end of the year. The officers of this club are:

President	JOHN FRANK
Vice President	GLORIA HILL
Secretary	DOROTHY HARDING
Treasurer	ESTHER DILL

Gimmel Teth

One of the outstanding social clubs is the Gimmel Teth. The girls have their social meetings at the members' homes. They sponsored an Election Dance in the fall. At the beginning of the new semester, new members were introduced into the club by a formal invitation and banquet. An annual picnic was held in the spring. The president, Kay Husby, is aided by vice president, Barbara Chisholm, secretary, Patty Marum, and treasurer, Myrna Cation.

Girls' Honorary Sports Club

Sponsoring girls athletics in the school is the main aim of the Girls' Honorary Sports Club. The girls act as leaders and referees in intramural games, and help to score and manage tournaments. A skating party was held in the fall; a progressive dinner in the spring. Later they held their annual overnight camping trip. A play-day for the nearby schools was sponsored by the girls in the spring. They also gave an assembly depicting the history of basketball.

Arts of Home Economics

Developing interest in the Home Economic department is the desire of the Arts of Home Economics Club. Scrap books are being made for the Children's Orthopedic Hospital in Seattle, and also of the club activities. The activities of the club consisted of the ticket sale, for "Petticoat Fever," ushering for Wa-Hilarities, a radio program, a spring picnic and a Christmas party, and initiation. Three girls attended the Washington Home Economic Convention at Cheney.

Girls' Classical Club

Greek architecture is the chief discussion at meetings of the Girls' Classical Club. The girls have taken an active part in school affairs, such as a skit in the Wa-Hilarities, a progressive dinner, a skating party, and an initiation of the club members. Officers are:

President	FRANCIS HOLTGREVE
Vice President	MARY LOU COLEMAN
Secretary	JUNE SHIMBO
Treasurer	BEVERLY BURGESS

Future Craftsmen of America

The Future Craftsmen of America is composed of ten boys who are interested in the construction of furniture and machinery. At present, they are not affiliated with the national organization, but they plan to join in the future. The boys make machinery for the shop, and work on furniture projects which are sold with the profit going to further the development of the shop. The boys have no officers.

Fencing Club

With a membership of twenty fencers, this club holds practice three afternoons a week. Captain P. W. Allison is the instructor. The members hold annual competitions with the "B" teams of the neighboring colleges and universities. The fencing paraphernalia is furnished by the students.

Math Club

With the idea of learning something about mathematics, and having a good time, the members of the Math Club, have enjoyed a very full year. At the meetings, math games are played, and math puzzles are worked. Speakers have spoken on army codes and astronomy. An enjoyable fall party was given and also a delightful spring party, both being given at members' homes.

Girls' Rifle Club

Using the R. O. T. C. range, the girls of the Rifle Club have weekly competition between club members on Wednesday evenings. At the beginning of each semester new girls are taken in and taught the fundamentals of shooting. The girls shoot ten consecutive shots each evening and Frances Holtgreve recently received the honor of shooting a perfect score. In a close match the Walla Walla girls defeated the Kennewick girls club.

Troubador Club

Featured at their meetings, are programs put on by members of the Troubador Club. This is done to make them more at ease in the assemblies, noon skits and radio programs. They help Santa Claus at Christmas, and Cupid on St. Valentine's day with their post office. Also enjoyed, is a social side to the club, with the members having several parties, and basket socials. They also presented a dancing skit for the Wa-Hilarities.

W W Club

Keeping order at school games, is the main duty of the W. W. Club. This club is limited to lettermen. Under the supervision of Merton Holloway, offenders at games are "hacked" by the paddle committee. One interesting feature of the club is its initiation, which is never forgotten by the member. Lawrence Jacky is the adviser. President is Merton Holloway; vice president, Bob Weathers; secretary-treasurer, Wayne Berry; reporter, Dick Clark.

In Harmony

The chorus has been very outstanding throughout the year having successfully participated in many school activities. Among these were radio programs, performances for P. T. A., and assemblies. The chorus also contributed a very realistic and pleasing Indian scene to "Wa-Hilarities." Approximately seventy-five boys and girls took part in the Indian scene.

The mixed chorus and the girls' chorus have both almost doubled their singers with a total of seventy-five boys and girls now taking part.

Students who have done exceptionally fine work have done solo and trio work this year.

The students learn the fundamentals of music which includes the reading of notes and theoretical work.

The work done by the chorus has been under the capable supervision of Mrs. Highberg.

With a Melody

For twenty-five years the Wa-Hi orchestra has made musical contributions to the school. Most of the development during this time has been under the guidance of Mr. H. C. Tilley. The present organization has twenty-eight members who meet twice a week for practice with a variety of instruments.

Providing much of the musical back-ground for Wa-Hilarities, the orchestra played the introductory overture and incidental music through-out.

He Had "Seven Chances"

"Seven Chances," by Roi Cooper Megnee was chosen for the annual Senior class play this year. The play which was directed by Miss Meta Pfeiffer and presented on May 5, was the story of one Jimmie Shannon who would receive twelve million dollars as the result of an erratic grandfather's will if he could find himself a wife in one day. He is refused by six girls and finds his true love in the seventh.

For "Petticoat Fever"

"Petticoat Fever" was given as the annual all-school play on November 23. The story tells of a lonely wireless operator (Dascom Dinsmore) who is daffy about women and who falls in love with a beautiful girl (Ethel Campion) who has landed near his station with her fiancée (Sir James Fenton).

Directed by Miss Meta Pfeiffer, the cast was as follows: Dascom Dinsmore, Sterling La Rue; Kimo, Jack Snyder; Sir James Fenton, Harold Pratt; Ethel Campion, Elaine Teague; Little Seal, Cora Jean Hilbert; Snow Bird, Glenna Driskell; Reverend Arthur Shapham, Homer Stewart; Captain Landrig, James Boldman; Scotty, George Davison; and Clara Wilson, Helen Coleman.

Making the Grade

Walla Walla High School for many years has maintained a chapter of the National Honor Society. Three times each year, students ranking scholastically in the upper five percent are elected to membership. In addition to scholarship, the members are chosen on the basis of leadership, character, and service.

Under the returning leadership of Miss Faye Hamm, the group held their first initiation this year in January. After the ceremony, which was held at Aurel Maxey's house, the members went to see the show, "You Can't Take It With You."

On a radio program in March, the initiation service was again presented. Cora Jean Hilbert, who won second place in the poetry interpretation division of the Seattle Speech Festival early in March, read several poems, and Barbara Woodward offered a piano selection.

At the beginning of the first semester, Clayton Matthews was elected president; June Wamble, vice-president; Ada Ichikawa, secretary; and Robert Fisher, treasurer. For the second semester, the members elected Sterling La Rue, president; Mary Lou Coleman, vice-president; Ada Ichikawa, secretary; and Robert Fisher, treasurer.

In their annual assembly in the spring, the new members were announced and the old members presented.

Members of the National Honor Society are:

With Pen In Hand

The W. A. Lacey chapter of Quill and Scroll, a national honorary society for high school journalists, has fourteen members this year. They are Peggy Allison, Helen Cummins, Peg Dickerson, Frances Holtgreve, Sterling La Rue, Sarah Ellen Loney, Clayton Matthews, Edna Seitz, June Wamble, Esther Youdovitch, Madeleine Howard, Cora Jean Hilbert, Roberta Gowen and Charles Montgomery.

Members of Quill and Scroll are chosen for their superior work on either of Wa-Hi's two publications and for high scholastic standing. Mr. Clifford Hamar, who helped re-establish Wa-Hi's chapter of this organization last year, is the adviser.

The group presented an assembly, "A Tribute to the Modern Newspaper," on October 28, 1938. This skit presented a very comprehensive idea of printing from the earliest stages to the present efficient presses. The group also sponsored a fireside on the sixth of January at which they entertained members of the Journal and Royal Blue staffs.

At the beginning of the second semester this year, the members re-elected Sarah Ellen Loney president. Peggy Dickerson was elected vice-president, and Peggy Allison, secretary-treasurer.

With Fall comes Football

The football team of 1938 has been called the most outstanding team since 1934. The Blue Devils met with three defeats during the season; one to the conference champion, Stadium High of Tacoma, and the second to the strong Seagull crew from Everett. The Imps lost a hard-fought game to the Lewiston Bengals by a one-point margin. The Blue Devils achieved a high third-place berth in the Cross State League.

PIGSKIN WHO'S WHO

- 68—Co-Captain Eugene Cochran, who was unanimously named All-Cross State guard, played an outstanding brand of ball for three years.
- 60—Co-captain Merton Holloway held down the blocking half-back job for two years where he showed his power and fast thinking.
- 55—Bob Hirsh led the team with quick and brilliant head work in the quarterback position.
- 57—Kenneth Fichtner, the boy with the "snake hips" enabled the Imps to pick up many yards in their stride for scores.
- 66—Dale Mathes filled the fullback position because of his power and drive. Dale will be back next season.
- 76—Frank O'Dell, the only sophomore to crack the starting line-up, displayed a good brand of ball in the right-guard position.
- 64—Bernard Argo carried the load of a very dependable center throughout the season.
- 74—Vard Pierce, who also was elected to the All-Cross State Team, showed a brilliant performance during the season at the tackle post.
- 75—Henry Oswald, who held down the other tackle position, showed consistent power and drive. "Hank" will be back next season.
- 73—Don Brumbach was voted an end berth on the second All-Cross State Team this year.
- 63—Harris Taylor, who made the starting line-up played a fine brand of ball for his first year of Varsity Ball.

SECOND STRINGERS

- 71—Bud Moore played as strong reserve guard.
- 67—Willard Transeth, a hard-hitting end, came through from last year's "B" squad.
- 65—Dick Clark, a sophomore fullback, will return next year for a chance at the first eleven.
- 56—Bob Rhay entered from Waitsburg in 1937 to play two years as reserve end.
- 61—Kenneth Sherwood, reserve junior, will be back next year fighting for the guard spot.
- 77—Ben Grote played his first year of ball as a reserve tackle.
- 62—Frank Woods, a center from last year's "B" squad, will be back for strong bid for the center post.
- 69—Dick Eggers, a sophomore halfback who shows great possibilities as a ball player, will also be back.
- 58—Jack Melton, a freshman quarterback, played wonderful ball this season and will be back for three more years.
- 70—Rod Garrett started the season with a first string berth but was held on the bench because of an injury.

Through the Hoop Basketball

1939, showed a team composed of young and inexperienced players. With only one regular back, Coach Jeffs molded a team made up of six sophomores, two juniors and two seniors into a third place tie with Yakima in the Cross-State League.

This years' team showed prospects of developing into champions of the Cross-League in the next two years.

As usual Wa-Hi's B and C squads came through a successful season with a string of wins. Playing heavy schedules, they defeated many of the outlying schools.

WHO'S WHO AMONG HOOPSTERS

- 22—Wayne Berry, a three-year veteran and a member of the State Champion team in 1937, played more quarters than any other player in the last two years. Wayne has also captured a berth on the All-Cross State League team during the seasons of 1938 and 1939. The "Red-Headed Ace" also was high scorer with 136 points for twelve games in the Cross-State League. Even though Walla Walla took eleventh place in the State Tournament, Wayne was voted honorable mention on the All-State team.
- 26—Jack Kenny, a sophomore who made the first five on the varsity this year, showed wonderful ability under the backboards, getting the ball and scoring at the center position.
- 30—Don Keyes, a veteran also from the championship team of 1937 returned this year after playnig independent ball to be starter in the left guard berth.
- 23—Warren Webb, a junior from last years "B" squad performed as a fine guard.
- 20—Bud Miller, the half-pint forward, showed speed and ability at scoring throughout the season. Bud will be back next year.
- 24—Ralph Estes, who cracked the travelling squad while sophomore, looks very promising for next year's starting line-up.
- 21—David Cox, a sophomore forward, has good prospects for next year's starting five because of brilliant playing.
- 29—Warren Bishoff, a member of the freshman team in 1936 has returned this season to turn in a good brand of ball. Warren will be back next year.
- 28—Dick Eggers, another of six sophomores, will be back next year as a strong bid for a first string position.

Sprinting for Victory

Wa-Hi for the first time in many years has turned out some very capable sprinters in Michalis, Taylor, Rhay, and Erdman. Rhay, Michalis, and Taylor are seniors and will carry the burden of sprint and hurdle events. Vard Pierce, letter winner of last year, will be back to carry the burden in the weight events.

Wa-Hi will be weak in the jumps and pole vault as no lettermen are in sight for these events yet but several promising sophomores are out working hard.

On the Diamond

Veterans of last year's team and new boys greeted the baseball season. This is the first time that baseball has been included in the Cross-State league. In addition to these games, the team is competing with the W. S. C. and Whitman Frosh teams and neighboring schools.

Five letter men are returning to the diamond this season. They are: Wayne Berry, Dick Eggers, Paul Garland, Dick Clarke, and Bob Weathers. These with the assistance of several promising new players, should boost Wa-Hi's team high on the Cross-State League.

Mr. Welch who is coaching baseball predicts that baseball will develop into a major sport at Wa-Hi.

Learning the Ropes

The Wa-Hi boxing and wrestling team has had the best year of its existence. The Wa-Hi maulers and grapplers won the state championship at Washington State College in both boxing and wrestling.

The boxing team was a well balanced affair and proved itself a strong aggregation. The team lost but one card all year and that was to our old rivals, the Mac-Hi Pioneers. However, on the return engagement the Blue Devils scored three knockouts and cleaned the slate by holding the Pioneers without a decisive bout.

Jack Aylward won the 135 pound state championship for the second successive year. Dave Gibbs, 115 pounder, also won his state crown as did Harold Howen, the heavy weight.

The wrestlers were handicapped by lack of inter-school competition, but the boys certainly tore their opponents apart when they did meet. Three boys, Henry Oswald in the 185 pound class, Chester Hillyer at 155, and Eldon Engle at 135, won state crowns at Pullman.

With a heavy nucleus of fine material coming up Wa-Hi should have another fine year.

Girls Sports

Take the Spotlight

Perhaps the recent establishment of a point system by which girls can earn letters through participation in individual tournaments, homeroom tournaments, exhibitions, and outside sports such as skiing, swimming, bicycling, hiking, skating, and horseback riding has been responsible for increased popularity and enthusiasm shown for girls' sports this year. One thousand points must be earned with no more than six hundred points a year earned in the combined fields to receive a letter in girls' sports. Girls who have reached that goal and have the honor of being the first to receive letters in girls' sports at Wa-Hi are Eileen Coyle, Roberta Bristol, Lois Mace, Mathilda Reuble, Isabel McLachlen, and Glenna Driskell. Other girls who will be among the first to earn letters, as they have eight hundred points or more, are Jane Harold, Alice Garrett, Helen Lambert, and Dorothy Chriscoe.

Homeroom, double, and individual tournaments have played the largest part in sports this year. The volleyball tournament held last fall had a good turnout with twenty-three homerooms participating. Honors in volleyball went to homerooms 202, 103, and 317. The ping-pong singles tournament and the badminton double tournament were huge successes. A new ladder tournament was featured this year in ping-pong. Alice Garrett placed first, Lois Gray, last year's winner, second, and Dorothy Chriscoe third in this tournament. The team, composed of Miss Porter and Lois Gray, placed first in badminton with Alice Garrett and Eileen Coyle close behind in second place. Homerooms 213, 101-109, and 319 won the honors in the basketball tournament with some very close games played. A badminton singles tournament and archery tournament will be played this spring.

The tumblers have done some outstanding work and have been in demand for frequent appearances.

The girls' gym classes have been playing volleyball, speed ball, tennis, badminton and basketball. They have also had archery, tumbling and ballroom dancing. Ballroom dancing, much in demand, and speedball, are new in Wa-Hi this year. Archery has been revived because of the interest shown.

The Girls' Honorary Sports Club has done much to make the girls sports-minded. They have sponsored tournaments and an assembly which reviewed the history of basketball. In addition to this the girls sponsored a play-day on April 29, for girls from schools near Walla Walla.

Girls' sports are playing a more active and important part in school activities each year. The director is Miss Betty Howard.
